After the services last evening, Mr.

Douglas, with Rev. W. E. Johnson, Rev.

E. C. Johnson and Vestryman Tomilingon, were taiking together in the church, when the young clerkyman became faint.

Dr. J. Blake White. of 1013 Madison ivenue, was sent for, and after treating his patient, recommended that he been to a hospital.

Mr. Johnson hurried to St. Luke's Hospital, at Fifty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, but as that institution had no ambulance Mr. Johnson went to the Presbyterian Hospital. He asked the authorities there to send their ambulance to the concret to take Mr. Douglas to St. Luke's. This the Presbyterian Hospital beople declined to do.

In the meantime the patient had been placed on a mattress, and was made as comfortable as possible, but he grew worse, and at midnight G. W. Dawson, he sexton, called in Policeman Barry, who summoned a Presbyterian Hospital mbulance, and the young clergyman was taken to that institution.

Mr. Douglas was graduated from Syrcuse University four years ago. He pok up the study of theology soon after graduation, and was admitted to bly orders a short time ago.

He has been latterly a tutor in the Mission of St. John's Chapel in Varick treet. He is a member of the Greek Letter Society Club, of the D. K. E. Fraternity, at 425 Fifth avenue.

Overwork and a bad cold which he contracted some weeks ago caused his illness.

Residents in the neighborhood believed that this order would abate the nuisance, but it appears that the officers of the New York Steam Heating Company have utterly disregarded it.

The chimneys send forth clouds of ill-smelling smoke, which is loaded with noxious gases and fine soot, that covers and nostrils of passers-by.

An "Evening World" reporter called at the office of the Steam Company, 173 Broadway, this morning. Secretary G. C. Andrews, said:

"The Health Board is making a terrible fuse about a little smoke that issues from our chimneys. We cannot afford may be accounted for by the fact that
